LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS
SAFETY ACT OF 2004

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the consideration of Calendar No. 599, H.R. 218.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the bill by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (H.R. 218) to amend title 18, United States Code, to exempt qualified current and former law enforcement officers from State laws prohibiting the carrying of concealed handguns.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I am pleased that the Senate is taking up and passing today the Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act, H.R. 218, which was passed overwhelmingly by the House last month by voice vote. I have waited a long time to see this action taken.

I want to pay special thanks to Congressman RANDY "DUKE" CUNNINGHAM, the author of this bill, and my good friend Senator CAMPBELL, with whom I cosponsored the Senate companion bill, S. 253, for their leadership and fortitude while negotiating this legislation. Without their perseverance and commitment, passage of this bill would not have happened. In fact, Representative CUNNINGHAM has been tirelessly working for over a decade to push this legislation, and I commend him for his dedication to making our communities safer and providing better protection for our law enforcement personnel.

During his time in the Senate, Senator CAMPBELL has been a leader in the area of law enforcement and brings with him invaluable experience. As a former deputy sheriff, he knows the difficulties and dangers law enforcement officers face due to the patchwork of conceal-carry laws in State and local jurisdictions. He and I have worked together on several pieces of law enforcement legislation, such as the Bulletproof Vests Partnership Grant Acts of 1998, 2000 and 2003. It has been a privilege working with him on our bipartisan Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act.

Law enforcement officers are never "off-duty." They are dedicated public servants trained to uphold the law and keep the peace. To enable law enforcement officers nationwide to be prepared to answer a call to duty no matter where, when or in what form it comes, I am proud to join Senator CAMPBELL and 69 other cosponsors, including Judiciary Chairman HATCH, Democratic Leader DASCHLE, Assistant Democratic Leader REID, Majority Leader FRIST and Assistant Majority Leader MCCONNELL, on the Senate version of the Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act, S. 253, which was reported out of the Senate Judiciary Committee in March 2003 by a vote of 18 to 1. Both H.R. 218 and S. 253 will permit off-duty and retired law enforcement officers to carry a firearm and be prepared to assist in dangerous situations.

These bills are strongly supported by the Fraternal Order of Police, FOP, the National Association of Police Organizations, NAPO, the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association, FLEOA, the International Brotherhood of Police Officers, IBPO, the Law Enforcement Alliance of America, and the National Law Enforcement Council.

I was honored to work closely on this measure with the former FOP national president, Lieutenant Steve Young, whose death last year was a sad loss for us all. Steve was dedicated to this legislation because he understood the importance of having law enforcement officers across the Nation armed and prepared whenever and wherever threats to our public safety arise. I have continued my close work with the FOP and current national president, Major Chuck Canterbury, to make this legislation law.

Community policing and the outstanding work of so many law enforcement officers play a vital role in our crime control efforts. Unfortunately, during the past few years the downward trend in violent crime—specifically murder—ended and violent crime rates have turned upward. The FBI has reported that while preliminary numbers show that violent crime overall declined slightly in the first half of 2003, murders increased by 1.3 percent compared with the year before.

There are more than 740,000 sworn law enforcement officers currently serving in the United States. Since the
